

The Dorset Brocante

Terms and Conditions 2026

Please read carefully

1. All Exhibitors must provide valid Public Liability Insurance for a minimum of £5 million at the time of booking.
2. All Exhibitors shall be responsible for their stand and exhibits before, during and after the event. The Exhibitors shall indemnify the organisers against all claims, damages, or expenses whatsoever which may arise through exhibiting at the event.
3. Cancellations by Stallholders. If you decide to pull out of an event or cancel your stall booking for whatever reason, there will be no refunds.
4. Candles or other naked flames must not be lit or displayed within the marquee or halls at any time, due to the risk of fire.
5. The Dorset Brocante will not be responsible for the injury, disease, death, or loss caused to any Exhibitor or customer during the event.
6. All temporary display structures, shelves, rails, ladders, exhibits and freestanding stock, are to be safely erected and displayed at all times. No fire escapes or gangways are to be blocked at any time in the halls or marquees. If you are asked to move your displays, if they are deemed to be blocking a fire escape, you must do so immediately.
7. All Exhibitors shall remain on site at their stand until the end of the event. Stalls should not be packed away until the fair has closed. All rubbish from your stand must be taken away at the end of the event and removed from site.
8. The Exhibitors will be solely responsible for the safe erection of their gazebo on site, including the use of tent pegs or weights to ensure the gazebo is securely attached to the ground in case of windy weather. The Dorset Brocante will not be liable for this.
9. The Dorset Brocante will endeavour to ensure the fair goes ahead as advertised. However, we cannot be held responsible for events, which are outside of our control, such as adverse weather conditions, or events which lead to a change in, or cancellation of the fair. In the unlikely event of the fair being cancelled, or the venue being unavailable owing to circumstances beyond our control (e.g. Coronavirus or Extreme Weather), we are unable to refund booking fees.
10. The Dorset Brocante team and their helpers will not tolerate unpleasant or abusive language or behaviour. Exhibitors who are found to be in breach of this will not be invited to take part again.
